

O My Father

Fervently ♩=42-56

1. O my Fa - ther, thou . that dwell - est In the 2. For a - wise and glo - rious pur - pose Thou has
 3. I had learned to call . thee Fa - ther, Thru thy 4. When I leave this frail . ex - is - tence, When I high and glo - rious on - place, When - shall placed me here . on - earth And . with - Spirit it from . on - high, But, . un - lay this mor - tal by, Fa - ther,

I re - gain thy pres - ence And a held the rec - ol - lec - tion Of my til the key of knowl - edge Was re - Moth - er, may I meet you In your gain - be - hold thy face? In they for - mer friends and birth; Yet oft - stored, I knew not why. In the roy - al courts on high? Then, at

O My Father

ho times heav'ns length, ly a are when hab se - are par - i crets ents com - ta - some sin - plet - tion, thing gle? ed Did Whis - No the you my pered, the you spir - it a once re - side? "You're thought sent makes me rea - son to do, In And Truth With my I is your first felt rea mu - pri that I truth ap - me - I had e - val had ter - nal hood dered tion Was From Tells Let I a me me nur more I've come tured ex - a and near alt - moth dwell - thy ed er side? sphere. there. you.